

DOLPHIN

Throwline

DOLPHIN throwline are crafted from polypropylene, a material known for its ease of splicing and indefinite buoyancy. It is ideal for use as a throwline as it flakes easily and resists kinking. Applications for MFP throwline include water rescue throwline, heaving lines, and river raft lanyards. Additionally, the reflective yarn enhances visibility in low-light conditions.

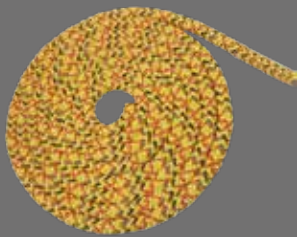

Easy splicing and indefinite buoyancy

Ease of use

Reflective yarn enhances visibility in low-light conditions

Technical Information

Polypropylene
CORE

16 Strand
STRUCTURE

0.91
SPECIFIC GRAVITY

0%
WATER
ABSORPTION

350°F (176°C)
MELTING POINT

Diameter (mm) 9.8

Weight (g/m) 45

Breaking strength (kN) 12

Standard Comply with NFPA 2500

Custom size and length available by request.

